

Introducing Hiend Show 2008

Hi-end show is the specialized Exhibition on high quality electronic products organized firstly in Vietnam to introduce to Vietnamese consumers in general, Hochiminh City Consumers in particular experience in the international art of sound and image. This show will be a venue of hundreds of famous electronic trademark in over the world provided their latest and most advanced - technology products in Vietnamese Electronic Market.

With the purpose of being effective useful information channel, this show will help international producers find partners, distributors in the potential market as well as create favorable conditions for domestic producers to approach the most advanced technology products and seek foreign partners for enriching domestic electronic market. For these above mentions and your cooperation, Hi-end show will become annual venue, "open and fair playing field", help manufacturers, distributors and consumers closer. We hope that Hi-end show will touch to your passion with high quality electronic technology.